A message from Ben

'The English Party Council has a key responsibility for parliamentary candidates and I want to see this role made even more professional and ready for the 2029 General Election.

The opportunity for us to build on the successes of the 2024 General Election are there and we must seize it without delay.

We need to see candidates representing the diversity of our country in place in all our target seats. And plans must be made for the next tier working to build our capacity and base across the country.

There can be no room for complacency so we must use the best experience in the Party to get there!'
